

Classroom Behavior Management Workshop

“Positive discipline – Positive results”

The focus of this training is to establish a safe and orderly classroom environment that stops negative student behavior, increases learning time, develops positive relationships and teaches students to take responsibility. The participants will learn how to develop and implement an individual classroom behavior management plan and how to work with colleagues on developing a school-wide behavior management plan.

Author and master trainer Dennis Mitchell has a wide-ranging background in education. Dennis has taught at the elementary, and middle school levels. His administrative experience includes elementary, middle and high school. Dennis has worked as an educational speaker & consultant since 1991. Dennis Mitchell is an authority on teaching innovative strategies to handle conflict and reduce stress between adults and children. Dennis delivers an interactive and inspiring message that leaves his audiences completely excited – empowered and energized. Dennis closes an event with audiences totally energized with creative and practical strategies.
